EVIDENCES OF HIS SUCCESS IN CURING

CATARRH,

And other Chronic Diseases that have Resisted the Ordinary Modes of Treatment.

Letter from B. P. Murdock, Esq., Editor of the San Jose Daily Patriot.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., NEW YEAR'S DAY, 1871.

DR. ABORN, San Francisco—Dear Sir: I have felt that our business and social relations for the last ten months were of such a character as to warrant me in addressing you this testimonial of my esteem for you, professionally and socially. Your remarkable success in the treatment of my son, Frank, a youth just entering on manhood, who had been afflicted for some time with an obstinate catarrh and throat disease, was but an additional proof of the distinguished reputation you had achieved in your profession before your advent to California, and disposed me to repose that reliance upon your scientific skill in the treatment of your specialties, which was so fully sustained by the successes of our prescriptions in all cases under your treatment in this city and neighborhood.

Allow me, also, to express my thanks, for the liberal and gentlemanly spirit you displayed in all of our business relations. As the proprietor of the San Jose Daily Patriot, I published for you many advertisements, all of which were promptly paid for, and in a manner peculiarly agreeable.

I do not know whether this letter will be of any use to you, but I have felt impelled to write it, as well as to assure you of my sincere esteem and cordial wishes for your happiness and prosperity.

Respectfully yours, etc.,
F. B. MURDOCK,
Editor and Proprietor San Jose Daily Patriot.

Letter from Wm. B. Lake, Esq.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 10, 1871.

DR. ABORN—Dear Sir: Permit me to add my testimony to the numerous public assurances you have received while here, of your skill and success in the treatment of those diseases which you make specialties in your practice.

My boy, now eleven years of age, had been seriously troubled for several years, with catarrh, when put under your treatment; when he was immediately relieved, and has been steadily improving ever since, until now he seems almost entirely recovered, and we feel we owe to your skill his rapid convalescence, and I assure you your name will ever be held in grateful remembrance by your young patient, and his parents and friends.

Yours respectfully, WM. B. LAKE,
No. 1025 Hyde Street, San Francisco.

LAW OFFICE OF H. P. & JESSE CLEMENT,

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 22, 1871.

DR. ABORN—Dear Sir: Understanding that you are about terminating your residence and practice in this city, I have thought that possibly you might be pleased to know that the little school girl, Mary Morris, whom you treated some months ago at my request, and who you will remember, was nearly deaf and seriously afflicted with some bronchial trouble when she went to you, is now ENTIRELY CURED, both of deafness and bronchial affection, and declares that she was virtually cured on her first visit to you. She and her parents are very grateful to you, and think that it is wholly due to your skill that her hearing and health are restored.

Yours truly, H. P. CLEMENT.

Card from Charles N. Fox, Esq.

[Office of Campbell, Fox & Campbell, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, No. 528 California street.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17th, 1872.

Were it not for the good which I hope it may lead others to suffering humanity, by informing them where they could find relief, I should regret having given Dr. Aborn my little testimonial of the tenth of January, for the demands made upon my time, in answering inquiries in regard to him, have been more numerous than profitable to me; and still they come.

To save the necessity for further personal application, let me say to those who care for my opinion, that time has only strengthened my first favorable opinion of Dr. Aborn, and my confidence in the permanency of the cure effected by him. All my difficulty arose from catarrh, which had become of a serious character, affecting the hearing and the throat, giving me at times acute pains, and at others rumbling sounds in the ears, frequent headaches, and so seriously affecting the bronchial tubes as to sometimes disable me from public speaking. It is also gone, and the change was produced, not by any species of charlatanism, as many suspect of the Doctor, nor by the absurd practice of putting medicines into the stomach which was not affected, but by the skillful application of medicinal remedies directly to the parts which were diseased. I have found the Doctor a gentleman in his intercourse and business, and the judgment that I have formed of him professionally is, that he is a regular physician, thoroughly acquainted with the anatomy of the human body, and possessing a remarkable degree of skill in the treatment of those diseases which he makes his specialty.

CHAS. N. FOX.

Another Wonderful Cure of Asthma and Bronchitis, after all other Methods had Failed.

SAN JOSE, March 6, 1870.

This is to certify, that I have been afflicted for over three years with Asthma and Bronchitis, and had tried every means in my power to effect a cure, and was told by my family physician (an honest and good doctor) that I could not be cured; and I became so weak that I could scarcely walk up a flight of stairs, and I happened to see a card from Lawyer Houghton, and he was being treated by Dr. Aborn, No. 22 Kearby street, San Francisco, and was getting great relief, and I thought I would go and see the Doctor; but I had little hope of getting relief, much less a cure. That was about the fifteenth of January, 1870, and to-day I claim to be a well man. I am fifty-nine years old. My mother and sister died with the same disease. I send this card, unsolicited, to Dr. Aborn, thinking that it might meet the eye of some of my acquaintances that might be suffering in the same way.

J. W. HALDWICK.

DR. ABORN

Has WONDERFUL SUCCESS in curing CHRONIC DISEASES after the usual routine of the profession have failed, and the many testimonials in his possession from prominent and influential men who are well known will substantially prove.

NO PAINFUL OPERATIONS.

DR. ABORN does not subject his patients to any painful or unpleasant operations; his treatment is mild, and safe for the most delicate child. The afflicted are hereby informed, that after the first visit, for many of the diseases which he makes a specialty, they can take the treatment home and use it until cured, without pain or interruption to their usual avocation.

ON

[DISEASE TENDING TO CONSUMPTION.]

This is a chronic affection of the mucous membrane of the nostrils or the throat, originating in irritation or inflammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most common, most disgusting, and finally most destructive of diseases incident to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stages catarrh fails to attract the patient's attention, so insidious is its approach. This is an unfortunate circumstance, because the most favorable period for treatment is thus unimproved, and because of the peculiar disposition of this disease to extend upward to the frontal sinuses, backward through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ears, and down through the larynx, trachea, and bronchia, to the air cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the affected part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape observation, unless it chance to be of a more than usual acrid character. As time goes on this gives place to a fluid that is thicker, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be succeeded by thick flakes or scales.

In all the more advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as sometimes happens, the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

Some cases early assume the character of Dry Catarrh. There is then a feeling of uneasiness, heat and stiffness in the nostrils, which are often (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent symptom.

On examining the nostrils in Chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find their tissue membrane thickened and of a deeper color than in health. There are seen little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and forms crusts. When these are picked off the diseased surface is irritated, and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the disease extends. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, obstruction of the lachrymal ducts, causing the tears to flow over the cheeks, and possibly ophthalmia—inflammation of the eyes. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian tubes, and consequent tendency to their obstruction, inflammation of the middle ear, buzzing sounds in the head, and impairment of hearing. When the extension is downward, the voice becomes hoarse or whispering and unmanageable; cough comes on, with expectoration and enunciation, to be followed too often by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which are flattening of the nose.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion, and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, faintness, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being suddenly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others, the prominent feeling is that of the melancholy or depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope for himself or his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs: thus causing Consumption and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are called to aid in expelling its destructive enemy. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, diminished and finally arrested, and whereby the ulcerated surface is healed and restored to its normal condition.

By means of new and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able to Catarrh and all other affections of the respiratory organs, to apply his remedies directly to the desired localities. Treatment is thus made more efficient as well as less disagreeable. In many cases the first applications of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

A FEW REMARKS ON

DISEASES OF THE EAR.

It is a well known fact that Diseases of the Ear are among the most frequent and most tedious affections to which the human system is exposed, and that Deafness, or impairment of the hearing, is a lamentable misfortune, alike to the public instructor, the military officer, and the government official, as each is obliged to yield his position to another. Equall unfortunate is the loss of hearing to mothers, who have the moral correction of the speech of offspring; and to that offspring in after life, thus cut off from the principal source through which both moral training and intellectual development are conveyed. And yet this function of hearing—the most useful and pleasure-giving of all our senses—is frequently sacrificed by want of attention to the early symptoms of disease, when judicious treatment could readily effect a cure.

True, treatment is often deferred because there is no manifest pain, and hence no danger is anticipated; or because patients are taught by physicians to believe that their disease is not remediable; or because this department of medicine has been neglected, and physicians, though skilled in other departments, know but little of aural surgery, and hence patients are generally discouraged by them.

In our increased and extended anatomical and physiological knowledge, all just grounds for want of confidence now have entirely ceased to exist, and no department in medical science is more thoroughly and successfully treated than is this branch by Dr Aborn.

The number of ear patients is constantly increasing with the increase of population, as they originate in so many diseases incident to childhood—as measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, &c., &c.

The latter disease is particularly prone to give rise to affections of the ear. Among the most troublesome (besides impairment of hearing) is one called otorrhœa, "a running from the ear," not strictly a disease, but a symptom of a diseased condition, which often becomes exceedingly offensive.

If this discharge continues without limit, which it is prone to do, it is liable to destroy the "drum" and delicate ossicles of the ear, and finally to produce caries of the bony walls. The popular notion that stopping this discharge endangers some other organ, or the life of the patient, should be corrected. There is far more peril in letting it alone than in curing it. While it continues, the discharge is a constant drain upon the constitution; but the health, on the contrary, is vastly improved by its eradication. Its persistence often indicates a scrofulous diathesis in the system.

Certainly, it is safe to change that morbid condition; to improve the general system; to remove the cause of disease, and the effect then ceases without danger. Nay, more: in the cure of otorrhœa, as in ozæna, or a "running from the nose," the consumptive tendency is also cured. Thus rational cure never substitutes one disease for another—never compromises the laws of life.

Now, in order to eradicate this common prejudice, and disprove the false conceptions of both patient and physician, I have repeatedly published, during a series of years, certificates of cures of deafness, and from persons of high social, clerical and political position, as so many indisputable facts of the success of my improved method of treating cases of ear disease, often of seemingly hopeless character.

EASTERN DATES TO AUGUST 16.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

German Affairs.

LONDON, August 15.—A dispatch from Strasburg states that disturbances occurred there between the Prussian troops and the inhabitants. Much animosity is shown toward the troops. Many attacks are made on them without opportunity for reprisal. A number of Prussian troops became involved in a quarrel with the inhabitants and a fight ensued. A number on both sides were killed and wounded.

It is stated on authority that serious disagreements have arisen between the French and German governments in reference to the Frankfort peace negotiation. Present difficulties are likely to lead to further complications which may result in the suspension of the treaty of peace negotiated at Frankfort.

LONDON, August 15.—Bismarck, Von Beust and probably Vassy, with assistant counselors from the respective departments, are going to Gastin to be present at the meeting of the Emperors. It is probable that important negotiations will be entered upon on the Roumanian question.

EASTERN STATES.

Minister Appointed.

NEW YORK, August 15.—A Washington special says there is little doubt that the President has appointed ex-Gov. Ashley of Montana, Minister to Brazil, also it said that the President told Ashley that he is now convinced of the falsity of the reports, and the dishonest means used by politicians to secure his removal from the Governorship of Montana.

More of the Pittston Disaster.

PITTSTON, Pa., August 15.—The last body was taken out of the Eagle shaft this morning. The mine inspector put a stop to all proceedings at midnight last night, in order to ventilate the mine so that those who went down could work without danger. A stream of water was turned in and the passage ways arranged by means of doors so that a current of fresh air could be circulated throughout the mine, which soon removed the damp. The bodies of seventeen men were recovered.

CANADA.

The Scott Centennial.

TORONTO, August 15.—The Scott centennial is being generally celebrated in all the principal places in the Dominion.

OTTAWA, August 15.—It is now positively asserted that the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise will take up their residence here for a lengthened period, the Governor-General's residence being prepared for their reception.

In consequence of the Washington treaty considerable reductions are expected to be made in the militia force.

ANCIENT EXPRESSES.—A well-known means of sending news rapidly, in a country with such bad roads as Greece, was by trained runners. Thus we are told that Philippides, a professional courier, ran from Athens to Sparta to beg for aid just before Marathon; arriving at the latter city at the end of the second day; and this was a distance of 150 miles. The constant gymnastic training in which Greeks and especially Spartan soldiers kept themselves, enabled whole armies to make very rapid forced marches. In the present instance, the Spartan army, though slow to start, yet, when it did march, performed the distance in three days. So, the old Chasseurs de Vincennes, the picked light troops of the French army, were trained to make swift marches by running one on either side of a cavalry soldier, whose stirrup-leathers they caught hold of. This, we believe or something like it is still kept up among the Zouaves. The episode of the "Ferry Cross," in the Lady of the Lake, shows how quickly a district may be aroused by a well organized system of running messengers. Indeed, the swiftness of a rumor is as proverbial as exaggeration. Lady Duff Gordon, in her voyage up the Nile, found that the news of her approach invariably outstript her movements, rapid as they were. The curious story given by Herodotus, of a herald's staff found floating on the sea at Mycle, and of the rumor that straightway run through the Greek host of a battle won by their countrymen in Greece Proper, that very day, (at Platæa,) is also a case in point. In countries more favorable for speedy traveling, much use was made of horses and other animals. The admirable system of roads and posts instituted by the Kings of Persia throughout their vast dominions—the posts that rode upon mules and camels, as we have it in the Book of Esther, excited the wonder of Herodotus, who says emphatically that "there is nothing in the world swifter than those messengers!" At the present time an Arab will not unfrequently travel a hundred miles a day on one of their untiring horses. The Romans with their straight roads, the primary object of which (as of Russian railways) was speed for military purposes, provided, we may be sure, the means for making the utmost of them. In the times of the Empire, post-houses were set up along the great highways every five or six miles, with about forty horses at each; so that a Roman Ambassador, for instance, using these relays, might easily journey in his chariot a hundred miles a day.—Chambers' Journal.

THE AMERICAN CROMWELLS.—A correspondent of the London Times lately declared that "the historic name of Cromwell has had no living representative since 1799," meaning we suppose, that neither Thomas Cromwell, Henry VIII.'s minister, nor Oliver Cromwell, his greater kinsman, have any descendants of that name now living. This is very likely to be true, but there are in this country descendants of Oliver Cromwell who do not bear the name, as the Chenoweths, descended from a daughter of Richard Cromwell who settled in Virginia, and others of various names. As for the Cromwells of this country, it is not necessary to suppose that they are descended from Oliver, for there was a family of the name settled in Massachusetts and New Hampshire while Oliver was living. Argentine Cromwell, a daughter of Giles Cromwell of Newbury, married and lived near Exeter, N. H., in the seventeenth century, of various names. Of the male descendants of Argentine Cromwell's father we know little, but Capt. Cromwell of Cincinnati may be one of them. As Rev. John Wheelwright, the first minister of Exeter, was a personal friend of Oliver Cromwell for many years, it is possible that he brought with him from England, among his phrahioners and friends, a kinsman of Oliver, but we believe there is no evidence of this, though there was a tradition that Argentine Cromwell was akin to the Protector. Any antiquarian who can trace the wanderings of John Wheelwright from 1627 to 1636, when he landed in Boston may throw light on several interesting points in New England history. He was a Lincolnshire man, five years older than Cromwell but was at Cambridge with him, and his Lincolnshire parish was not far from Cromwell's home in Huntingdon.

A portion of the Gherrero insurgents have again been defeated. Several of the insurgent prisoners have been executed by their guard, which the Minister of War will investigate.

The only French prisoners now remaining in Germany are four officers and 800 privates in the hospitals, and ten officers and seventy privates imprisoned for various offences.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, August 16.—Advices from Paris say that city is in an excited situation. Threatening troubles is apprehended from various sources. The air is full of rumors that the army will revolt against the Versailles Assembly and declare for McMahon for Regent and demand the Empire. The people are stampeding from Paris.

Some believe the Orleanists' scheme is ripe for a coup d'etat, being pushed by a proposition to make Thiers permanent Executive, which it is feared would establish a Government not monarchial.

Thiers has no friends—he is hated by the Republicans, Royalists and Imperialists alike. The crisis is approaching.

LONDON, August 16.—Dispatches say Bismarck has commenced a rigorous campaign against Papacy, and as a first blow declared in Parliament and his official gazettes that he regards the ultramontane church as hostile to the State. He has broken off all relations with it not purely political, and has dissolved the Catholic part of the ministry of public worship. He is intriguing for the establishment of an orthodox Catholic party, which is the name applied to opponents of infallibility, and is actively supporting Dr. Dollinger.

There was a meeting of 12,000 people in Dundalk, Ireland, in favor of a Roman rule.

At the Scott Centenary Celebration at Belfast Lord Dufferin presided at the banquet.

The Czar informed Tefko, French Minister, that there was no treaty between Russia and Germany.

Difficulties have arisen in Berlin in relation to the evacuation of four departments. France refuses to admit Alsatian produce before the evacuation.

Brevit proposes that the President communicate with the Assembly by means of messages.

Dispatch from Rome.

ROME, August 15.—There was an illumination to celebrate the assumption.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, August 16.—Advices from Washington state that no official dispatch has been received concerning the Corean difficulty, and accounts hitherto published are probably incorrect. The Chinese Eastern Question may involve a war of the western nations with China, from which our Government will not escape. Other nations are interested in the Corean problem as well as our own, but the United States will not be likely to make war against Corea without the co-operation of other western Powers.

Advices from London state that fatal cases of cholera appeared on three steamers from Constradt to Hull, but the English authorities were taking every means to prevent its introduction by ships arriving at their ports.

Yesterday, dispatches received here announce two fatal cases of cholera in Paris.

Members of the Health Department in this city think there is little probability of the cholera visiting this country this year. One physician says that he no longer considers cholera a matter of American interest; that it has been lurking in Europe for years while we have escaped.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 16.—The coroner's inquest held over the body of Frederick Talberg; the special policeman who was run over by engine No. 2, rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts already published. It acquits the driver of all blame.

Yesterday a car, laden with port and angelica wine, was dispatched to Chicago by Landsberger, to fill an order given by a wholesale druggist.

This afternoon a banner, sixty feet long and ten feet wide, with Booth and Pacheco painted thereon, in red and blue letters, was placed across the street at the corner of Davis and Clay, by enthusiastic Germans. The owners of the buildings being Democrats, protested against the banner; the tenants being Republicans, declared they would tear it down if they saw fit. The owners then declared they would sue out an injunction. The affair created considerable amusement.

The persons charged with violating the lottery law were examined before Judge Stanley, in the County Court, this afternoon.

The Bank of California will send $500,000 in coin to South America by the Panama steamer to-morrow; one of the largest shipments ever made, and an evidence of increasing trade with that country.

Maurice Dorr & Co., held a real estate auction sale the evening and disposed of property to the amount of $58,000 at prices which did not justify the expectations of the sellers. THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 17, 1871.

Our Trade Relations with the South Pacific Colonies.

The gigantic strides made in the commerce of the Pacific coast is a cause of general remark East. There is no nation on the globe possessing ocean communication but what our merchantmen have visited. Steam communication with Mexico and South American ports on the Pacific has been long established; steam communication with the Sandwich Islands, China and Japan within the past two years, and this year has been marked by a very important commercial enterprise—the establishing of steam communication with Australia and New Zealand. The establishing of this line is well calculated to promote much closer trade relations between countries whose origin and language are the same, and whose people very generally are in accord in regard to measures of public policy. Australia and New Zealand are divided into several provinces under the general jurisdiction of Great Britain, each province having a local Legislature and transacting its own business, without any special regard to the others. In fact, the relations between the States or provinces are such that no common policy governs them, and hence matters of policy affecting their different interests are sometimes conflicting. The mother Government, from its remoteness, does not exert any special influence in harmonizing these jarring relations, and neither does it care about instituting a homogeneous government. Under these circumstances a movement has been set on foot towards federation and the promotion of a customs union. Such a course as this will involve something more than a mutual agreement upon matters of trade and union. The intended union must virtually assume the character of a distinct nationality, or nationalities, independent economically of the mother country. In this connection, we quote the following from the New Zealand Star:

As a colony we know that the day of independence must be near at hand, for it is intolerable that the present anomalous and perilous position should be maintained. And with our independence, as is acknowledged, the only form of government admissible will be that of a Republic. In such circumstances there can be nothing more desirable than the cultivation of everything that will contribute to bind to us closely the sympathy of the United States. One in language, in institutions and in mode of thought, we may not require material aid, but the moral support of such a power would be to us indeed a shield of protection. And if through commercial relations and friendly intercourse we endeavor both now to cherish our interests and feelings and aspirations, it is not difficult to understand the warmth of generous national feeling and the vigor of American diplomacy that would be put forth if required in behalf of the young Republics in the Southern Seas. Time was when we might have felt a jealousy in seeing the Stars and Stripes floating over the mail boats carrying our European letters. That feeling is dead; and we believe that from end to end of New Zealand there is not one to whom it will be a subject of regret, while to thousands it will afford unmingled satisfaction as a harbinger of the time when the Stars and Stripes and the Southern Cross will float together in friendship and alliance, protecting and spreading the blessings of commerce and civilization, as the symbols of republican power and liberty, extending from shore to shore over the wide Pacific.

Similar sentiments find expression in the American press, and we have not far to search for the cause. The colonies have progressed so far that a union of common policy has become absolutely necessary. The reunion already foreshadowed, will be the first step towards independence of the mother country. Political independence is now frequently discussed. Many are ready for it and more look for it intimately, but are waiting for the ripening of events. There is a strong Republican feeling in the country, and when nationality is once assured it will probably be modeled after the United States. When this takes place a community of interest will grow up between the United States and Australia and New Zealand such as cannot exist under the present system of government there. Our trade in that direction has hitherto been small, but with steam communication established and a federation almost a fixed fact, our trade is improving, and soon we may hail the day when the bulk of the trade will be turned this way.

The working of the extension of the suffrage in England to the laboring class may be noted in a large meeting at Birmingham to protest against an annuity to Prince Arthur. It is not likely that workingmen will contemplate with contentment the large allowance to the royal family, even though it be less than any royal income in Europe. The Queen's civil list is as follows: £60,000 for privy purse; 131,360 for salaries and pensions of the household; £172,500 for expenses of the household; £13,200 for royal bounty and special service; £8,040 unappropriated; £1,200 for special pensions—making a total of £386,200. Probably this is not large considering the state she has to maintain, but it looks large to a workingman, and there will be plenty of demagogues to harangue them on it, and to compare their state with that of the royal family.

But the allowance to the royal family is really a commutation for crown estates ceded to the realm, and this sum is not more than a ninth part of the revenue of the estates so ceded, estates which were as much the property of the crown as the estates of the barons. There is a right of property in the case, but it has become almost extinct in the public mind. England is on the high road to democracy, and before long the political power will pass to the working class, who, when they take the bit in their teeth, will pay little heed to feudal rights or vested rights.

The very general adoption of the narrow gauged railroad, East, has been attended with good effect by allowing of the building of railroads in sparsely settled communities so as to connect them with marts at small expense. From present appearances, Walla Walla will have completed a line connecting that place with the Columbia river. That there are many localities in this State where this kind of railroad can be built to the great advantage of both builders and settlers, is very generally conceded. There are many valleys in this State will require these railroads built to them before they will become thickly settled and not alone to the agricultural valleys will they be required to be built, but to the rich mining localities. The Galena mines discovered in this State compares favorable with any Galena mines in the Union, but to make them yield very large profits the ore must be transported as cheap as possible. In the States narrow gauged railroads are being built expressly for carrying ore from the mines to make connections with leading roads so as to send the ore to market as quick and cheap as possible.

The town of Walla Walla is alive with teams loaded for Idaho.

Walla Walla is to have a city jail.

The Finley Sisters are performing in Boise City.

The Methodist church destroyed by fire in Kalama, will be rebuilt in two weeks.

The citizens of Walla Walla gets up fire alarms so as to try their new steam fire engine.

A young man named W. W. Markham was accidentally shot at Johnson's saw mill. The wounds were not fatal.

Walla Walla is making extensive preparation for the County Fair to be held there September 20th, to continue four days. The premium list is said to be larger and more liberal than heretofore.

The Statesman says: The Directors of the Walla Walla & C. R. railroad have submitted to the Board of County Commissioners now in session, a proposition looking towards the completion of this enterprise. The paper as laid before the County Board is quite lengthy and embraces substantially the following propositions:

1. Walla Walla county to issue bonds to the amount of $300,000, bearing 8 per cent. interest, and to run for twenty years.

2. To secure the county, the company will give a first mortgage on the whole road, estimated to cost $500,000.

3. The county to have authority to control the rate for down freight at not less than $2 per ton, exclusive of running expenses and keeping said road in repair.

The county to control the proceeds on all down freight until the bonds have been redeemed.

THE POWER AND RESPONSIBILITY OF WOMEN.—The subtle and mysterious attraction which everywhere draws men to women is a sacred trust committed to women by the Creator. It is not only a power irresistible, but a passion inalienable. By no misuse or disuse can it be forfeited. It is not beauty, nor wit, nor goodness; for the attraction exists independent of all these. It is simply womanhood. Man pays deference to woman instinctively, involuntarily, not because she is beautiful or truthful, or wise, or foolish, or proper; but because she is a woman, and he cannot help it. If she descends, he will lower to her level; if she rises, he will rise to her hight. This is the real danger—not that she will drive him from her, but in that she cannot drive him from her. She cannot help being his blessing or his bane. She cannot make herself into a being who he will not love. If she is insipid, ignorant, masculine, coarse—then he will love insipidity, ignorance, masculineness, coarseness, and be himself deteriorated: So much the more ought woman, by virtue of this mysterious and inalienable power, to rise to the hight of its wise and worthy exercise. Instead of making it merely the minister of her own indolence and vanity, it should be made to minister all human grace and succor. Instead of regarding it as a reason why she may dispense with prudence and wisdom, it is the reason of all reasons why she should concentrate within herself every resource of prudence and wisdom.—Gail Hamilton.

The prevalence of tempests and tornadoes in various sections of the West has been attended with results as disastrous as to threaten serious consequences in many communities. They have followed in regular succession, and in some cases repeatedly visited the same locality. Houses, fences, and crops have alike been swept away, attended with serious loss of life. Western Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota have suffered the most, but great damage has been done both East and West. The effect of these catastrophes is severely felt on the frontier, where the pioneer settlers have just made a commencement, and are engaged in a struggle for existence. The crops are generally light in the districts most effected, and when to their loss is added the dwellings and the outbuildings of the farmers with their contents, the blow is doubly severe, and calls for active sympathy and relief.

A writer describing the Lake Superior silver mines, about which so much has been printed of late, says: "We expected to see a small island, and small indeed it is, being only a rock, less than 200 feet of surface showing above the water, the highest point often washed by the waves. The mine is simply a well, some sixty feet deep, enlarged to a small chamber at the bottom. Around this little point, insignificant yesterday, now centers the eager attention of the mining world. Silver ore, paying $1,000 per ton, is being thrown out of this well at the rate of ten tons per day, and the vein is said to be the richest ever opened."

A Halifax correspondent says that the fishing clause in the Washington treaty has become quite popular in the Provinces.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a TUMOR KEPT SWELLING grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head. Since last spring I have been taking your "Uva Ursi Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and THE BONY GROWTH HAS ALMOST DISAPPEARED and I use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

THE ONLY PATENT FLUTING AND SMOOTHING Iron ever offered to the public, and pronounced by the Press perfection itself.

Wanted by all Housekeepers, on its own merits, as the Cheapest and most Perfect household article yet devised.

Advantages over all others—CHEAPNESS! SIMPLICITY! DURABILITY! Requires no labor to adjust it for Fluting or Ruffling, as in the case with expensive crank machines: the Iron is heated in the ordinary manner as for plain smoothing. When desiring to FLUTE or RUFFLE, draw back the Latch and it is ready for its work; the simple movement is all that is required. Its entire simplicity is one of its many merits.

It will not injure the finest fabric. It will not rust or destroy your clothes. It is a great saver of Time and Money. It is the only Iron with a "Rolling Motion." Its Fluting surfaces are of Polished Brass. No home can afford to be without one.

MYERS' COMBINED FLUTING AND SMOOTHING FLAT-IRONS have received for themselves a popularity which has never been attained by ANY Fluting Machine. People go into ecstacies over the results accomplished by our Irons, and the longer they are used the more highly do they value them, and no wonder, when we consider that our Combined Fluting and Smoothing Flat-Irons, which are no trouble whatever to use, and which do plain ironing as well as Fluting and Ruffling, costs only the very small sum of $2 75 each.

These Irons are for sale only by our Canvassing Agents.

The duration of the corporation shall be for one year and eight months from the date of the filing of these articles.

The object of the association shall be to purchase and acquire the title to certain tracts of land situated at different points on Puget Sound for homestead purposes, and after the same has been purchased, to cause the same to be subdivided into blocks and lots; to improve such lands when purchased, and make proper deeds of conveyance to those who may purchase from any member of the association.

The number of Trustees who shall manage the affairs of the association shall be three, viz: J. M. Caywood, W. H. Harris; and L. S. Rosenbaum.

COURT NEWS.—The regular term of the Circuit Court for Clatsop county, commenced Thursday, 8th inst., Judge Upton presiding. There being but a small docket to dispose of, the Court was in session but three days. The following is a summary of the most important cases on trial:

State vs Silas Osborn; indicted for larceny in a house: convicted and sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year.

State vs Lewis Corley; indicted for assault and battery; acquitted.

Charlotte Ingles vs S. G. Ingles; divorce suit; M. Elliot for plaintiff, Malkey for defendant, Dotham for State; divorce granted.

Welsh vs. Schiveley; demurrer to answer sustained, and case set for next term of court.

First National Bank vs foreclosure of mortgage.

Thomas Goodwin vs Aiken et al., executors of Cyrus Olney, deceased; decree for specific performance was entered. Dotham for plaintiff.

The Court adjourned on Friday, the 11th, after a pleasant session. The following attorneys from this city were in attendance: W. Lair Hill, E. D. Shattuck, George H. Durham, County District Attorney, W. C. Johnson, J. K. Reed, M. F. Mulkey, J. H. Mitchell and R. A. Williams.

FREE LECTURE.—Rev. Cyrus Dickson, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Home Missions will lecture this (Thursday) evening, at the First Presbyterian Church in this city. Dr. Dickson is late of Baltimore, Md., and one of the ablest divines of our day. His style is intensely earnest and vigorous, and originality stamps every utterance. His voice is clear and well modulated; his enunciation distinct, his diction pure and elegant, and his elocution graceful and winning. He is very favorably impressed with Oregon, and speaks in glowing terms of her future. The duties and labors he is called upon to perform extend over a large portion of the United States, and his wide influence will be exerted in behalf of our young and growing State. Those who heard him last Sabbath will need no further inducement to come again, and to those who did not we can faithfully promise an intellectual feast. We bespeak for him a full house.

MUSICAL CORPORATION.—Messrs. John McCraken, J. H. Hatch and W. T. Shanahan, have filed articles of incorporation in the County Clerk's office and have associated themselves together as a company for the purpose and with the object of supplying the stockholders herein with piano fortes and organs.

The name of the corporation shall be the Oregon Piano Forte and Organ Association.

The principal place of business of the association shall be at No. 75 Front street, Portland, Oregon.

Amount of capital stock to be $25,000.

The capital stock to be divided into fifty shares of the value of $500 each share.

The shares provided for may be subdivided at the pleasure of the incorporators or the officers duly authorized and certificates issued for such subdivided shares.

BOUND OVER.—M. Mason was examined before Justice S. A. Moreland yesterday, on a charge of threatening the life of James Johnson. After an investigation of the case Mason was held to answer in the sum of $100. This action was not taken however on the strength of the charge preferred, it being proved in the evidence that Mason was guilty of an assault simply—beating the plaintiff with a rail.

PROF. W. H. ROGERS.—This gentleman, who has had charge of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary during the past school year, will take his departure on the Orifiamme this evening. Prof. Rogers goes to New York to take charge of an institution of learning. He leaves a large circle of warm friends in this State and city, whose best wishes and kindest regards for his future welfare will accompany him East.

CIRCULATING.—We learn that a petition is in circulation among the citizens, and quite numerously signed, requesting that Mrs. Cady Stanton should pay this city a visit before starting East. Many are anxious to hear this distinguished female lecturer, and her advent here would, no doubt, create a first-class sensation in all circles.

LECTURE.—Rev. Dr. Dickson, Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Home Mission, will deliver a lecture at the First Presbyterian Church this evening. All who desire to hear this eminent speaker and divine should attend. Admission free to all.

NEW PRECINCT.—Silas Osborn, recently convicted of larceny, and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the period of one year, from Clatsop county, was taken to Salem yesterday in custody of Sheriff B. F. Barrowe.

FOR MOUNT HOOD.—The party of excursionists who started from this city for the summit of Mount Hood have been absent over a week. They expected to accomplish the round trip in about ten day, from the time of starting.

INCREASE ACTIVITY.—There is at present a great activity observable throughout the city. A large number of new buildings are in different stages of construction, while street improvements are being made in all directions.

COMING.—James Pipes, of Pipesville,—Stephen Massett—the noted lecturer, writer, and song composer, is announced to be at Portland in the course of a week or more. He proposes to make a tour throughout the State.

DIED.—From a dispatch received last evening, from Jacksonville, we learn the sad intelligence of the death of Judge T. H. B. Shipley, County Judge of Jackson county. He died at his residence yesterday of pneumonia.

ON BUSINESS.—Mr. Bawby, editor and proprietor of the Democratic Era, will leave on the Oriflamme this evening for San Francisco, where he goes on business connected with the publication of that paper.

NEW TURN TABLE.—A new turn table is in process of construction below the boneyard. It is so near completion that the platform on which the locomotive is to be placed, has been planked.

BARK ALHAMBRA.—The bark Alhambra, from San Francisco, arrived at Astoria on last Monday evening. She will probably be up this evening in tow of some of the river boats.

SOLD AT AUCTION.—Mr. A. B. Richardson sold at auction yesterday, lots 1 and 2, in block 322, for $2,475, and lots 3 and 4, in block 322, for $2,125.

OLD BOURBON.—Messrs. Janion & Rhodes will please accept the thanks of this office for a bottle of the pure and celebrated "Cutter's Bourbon."

AGUE.—We learn that this complaint is going the rounds of East Portland. Quite a number of cases are reported on this side of the Wallamet.

EDWARD JAMES.—The bark Edward James, under command of Capt. Patterson, will sail from San Francisco for this port on the 30th inst.

PASSED WEST.—Mrs. Geo. T. Myers and Mrs. J. Dobbins, of Portland, passed Ogden yesterday morning West on their way homeward.

BARK ORIENT.—The bark, Capt. Nickles, is announced to sail for Portland from San Francisco to-day, with a full cargo.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The Common Council met last evening, Mayor Wasserman in the chair.

Councilmen present—Bills, Burton, Caywood, Combs, Hallock and Hill.

Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted; also portions of the minutes of the two previous meetings were read and approved.

PETITIONS.

A petition from E. Russell and others, requested that Columbia street be planked; referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

Permission was granted to D. J. Bryan to use a portion of Washington and Sixth streets for building purposes.

A petition from John Friese to be granted ten days further time to finish grading block 255, was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

A communication from Mr. R. B. Knapp stated that by reason of the action of Council, the waters which were coming down Robinson's hill were changed from their natural course and turned into Montgomery street, injuring the same and entailing expenses upon the parties residing in that vicinity; he would, therefore, ask that they be relieved from any further unnecessary expense in such matter; and that the grade of Montgomery street near Sixth be changed to 103 feet above base of grade.

Mr. A. Myers sent in a proposition objecting to the proposed change of the grade of Fourth street as advertised in the Daily Herald; the proposed change being fraudulent, therefor the original proposition was binding.

A communication from the same party stated that he was requested by Mr. Besser to repair the street in front of his (Myers') residence, and that he was engaged in repairing it; but inasmuch as the damage was caused by water last winter which, at the request of Besser, he allowed to pass in front of his house in order not to injure the property of a poor widow, he would charge the expense of the same to the city.

One Councilman moved to refer the matter to Mr. Besser and the widow, and this was amended by striking out the widow.

Neither was adopted, and the petition passed on its usual course.

REPORTS.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported that it had examined the petition of Al. Ziebor in reference to being assessed $3,000 too much, and that the same was correct; therefore the same should be refunded.

The committee also recommended the passage of a resolution to reimburse A. Carr, as he had been erroneously assessed; and that the petition of G. C. Rider for return of tax be denied.

The committee reported that Samuel and Delia Sykes owed to the city $100, which was secured by mortgage, and inasmuch as it was due last June and not yet paid, it was recommended that the City Attorney be directed to institute proceedings against the parties to recover the amount. Report adopted.

The Committee on Judiciary made a report recommending that the City Attorney should appeal from the decision of the Circuit Court in the suit between Carter and Mason against the city and take the same before the Supreme Court. Report adopted.

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department reported that water pipes were being laid along North Front street, and recommended that hydrants be placed on the corners of Front and E and Front and C streets, for in cases of fire in that vicinity, no water was convenient for the use of the engineer, also that the iron cover on the hydrant near Third and Jefferson streets was broken and that a new one was wanted. The report was referred to the Committee on Fire and Water.

A report from the City Attorney to the Chairman of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, specified that the lot intended to be purchased for a police building belonged to the Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, but that they should procure from Benjamin Stark a quitclaim deed to the same. Referred to Committee on Streets and Public Property.

The following claims were audited and warrants ordered drawn in favor of the persons: C. M. Myers, $5 75; T. Patterson & Co., $5; T. Patterson & Co., $40 30; J. H. Lappens, $50 53; A. B. Hallock, $33; W. P. Burke, $15; John A. Blanchard, $3; Hall, $0; Morrison & Gosney, $500 68.

ORDINANCES.

The following ordinances were introduced by the Committee on Streets and Public Property:

That the report of the City Surveyor, relative to the extension of Eleventh street, be adopted. Read twice.

To provide for the time and manner of improving that portion of South Second street lying between Sherman and Sheridan streets.

To provide for improving Grant street, between Front and Fourth streets. Passed.

To provide for the improvement of Sherman street, between Front and Fourth. Passed.

To improve Lincoln street, between Front and Fourth streets.

The Committee on Fire and Water presented an ordinance authorizing a contract to be entered into for the work to be done in placing in order the yard back of Engine Co. No. 3, provided the same did not cost over $400. Passed.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Committee on Streets and Public Property introduced a resolution, appointing John M. Brock, W. S. Ladd and W. P. D. Bardenburgh viewers of the extension of Twelfth street and the same was adopted.

Two resolutions by the same committee authorizing the Surveyor to make a survey of the proposed extension of 9th and 10th streets, from the Chapman to the Lownsdale claims—adopted.

A resolution from the same committee that notice be given of the proposed improvement of 12th street between E and K streets, was adopted.

A resolution by the Committee on Ways and Means that a warrant be drawn for the sum of $45, in favor of A. Carr, was adopted.

A resolution by the Committee on Streets and Public Property, that notice be given of the proposed change of grade of North Front and Ninth streets, was adopted.

A resolution by Councilman Hill, directing the City Attorney to investigate and report to the Council what right parties had to fence and obstruct College street between Second and Third streets, was adopted.

A communication from the Board of Foremen of the Fire Department to make preparations for the anniversary celebration, was read. It asked the Council to donate them a sum of money sufficient to defray the expenses of the parade. The money was not asked in charity, but a small recompense for arduous and often dangerous duties. The communication was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

The Council then adjourned.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE CASH SYSTEM.—Mr. A. Wessels, at Hubbard's Station, in Marion county, Ogn., is about to create a revolution in the mercantile business in that vicinity, by establishing the cash, in place of the old credit system. His motto is, "Small profits and quick returns." He sells his goods cheap for cash, and pays cash for everything he buys. Mr. Wessels pays the highest cash price for wheat, which he ships to Portland. Mr. Wessels' rapidly increasing business is sure proof that a strictly cash business will succeed. wtf

PORTLAND ACADEMY.—This popular institution of learning will commence the new school year on the 28th inst. The Portland Academy and Female Seminary will be under the supervision of Rev. T. F. Royal, A. M., assisted by an efficient corps of teachers. Read advertisement in another column.

NEW EXPRESS WAGON.—Mr. Frank Moulthrop, the polite and accommodating city messenger of Wells, Fargo & Co., will bring out a new express wagon to-day. All the merchants and business men of the city always find Frank "on time."

Help for the Nervous.

Where is it to be found, cries the trembling victim of nervous debility. Not in the tavern drink; that fires up the circulation for a moment, and is succeeded by a collapse. Not in purgative pills or a Lenten diet; but in an invigorant and restorative in which the tonic elements are united with gentle aperient and alterative properties. When Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was introduced nearly twenty years ago, this important object was first attained. This peaceful and active vegetable specific is so justly celebrated for its cures of nervous diseases, as for its absolute certainty with which it relieves dyspepsia and biliousness. The hot weather toward the close of summer generally aggravates diseases of a nervous type, creating a degree of restlessness which is beyond measure distressing. Under such circumstances rally the bodily energies with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Of all tonics, it is the most satisfactory in its operations, and the least exciting. It braces the nerves up to their natural tension, but not beyond it, so there is no reaction. It has other properties, however, than those of a nervine and as a blood depurent and moderate aperient, is superior to any other medicine of the day.

Fraud, however, is on the alert. The celebrity of the original medicine has given rise to scores of counterfeits and imitations. Examine the label, and the fac simile of the signature of the firm; see that the spelling is all correct, and thus make sure of the genuineness of the article you buy. P. S.—Hostetter's Bitters are never sold in kegs or barrels, but in bottles only.

Accounts continue to reach us of the large yield of fall wheat throughout the State. The berry, as a general thing, being very plump and clean, is said to be full a third more than for five years past. We have not heard of any harvesting spring wheat as yet.

By late mail advices from Europe we learn that in France the crop prospects are not favorable. In Saxony there is a prospect of a large yield—more than our average crop. In France, especially in the west and southwest, crops have improved and promise a large yield. The crop in Russia will be fully an average. The prospects for fully an average yield in Hungary, Roumania, Bulgaria, and Bavaria, were very flattering. From England we have no late mail advices, but we expect within four weeks or two by telegraph as to the result of the harvest. The United Kingdom appears to be more at the mercy of the elements than any other part of Europe, nothing can be told with certainty about crops there until harvesting is commenced.

We take pleasure in to-day adding another article from the Sandwich Islands to our already long list of imports. If practical experience as to using the Punloe Salt proves as successful as the following analysis for Corbitt & Macfarlane, made by Paul Tromnitz, chemist, would justify us in believing. The salt as analyzed contains sodium chloride (pure salt), 858.81; chloride calcium, 21.29; chloride magnesium, 81.18; sulphate lime, 27.48; insoluble substance, 58.27; loss, 11.01; total, 1,000. Mr. Tromnitz says: Having analyzed other American salts, I recommend the above salt equal to any. There are several thousand tons of salt used annually in Oregon and at the fishing points on the Washington Territory side of the Columbia river, and if this Punloe salt by practical experiment proves equal to other brands of salt in packing fish, meat, etc., then vessels loading in the Sandwich Islands, having part cargoes engaged, can obtain quick dispatch by loading balance cargo with salt.

We have been trying to ascertain the number of sawmills, their capacity, cost, etc., with the following result; (but we are inclined to the opinion that we have not been able to obtain all): There are in Baker county, 0; Benton, 8; Clackamas 15; Clatsop, 8; Columbia, 6; Coos, 0; Curry, 1; Douglas, 9; Grant, 3; Jackson, 8; Josephine, 2; Lane 19; Linn, 14; Marion, 2; Multnomah, 8; Polk, 11; Tillamook, 2; Umpqua 2; Union 4; Wasco 3; Washington, 8; Yamhill, 11. Of these 115 are propelled by water and 38 by steam. The estimated cost, with improvements since added, is $1,200,000, with a daily capacity estimated at 1,200,000 feet. The largest of the mills is Eagle Mill No. 4, situated at Milwaukie, and owned by the Messrs. Kelly. Its capacity is 1,000,000 feet per week. Adds from the above there are several located on the Washington Territory side of the Columbia that supply many vessels engaged in the Oregon trade with lumber. We cannot as yet give the number of men employed, or the amount of lumber exported, but can safely say that the amount exported is not inconsiderable amount. But the large majority of these mills are situated in the interior of the State, and sell all lumber manufactured for local demand, which is very large owing to the large immigration coming in.

Secretary Boutwell has issued the following circular prescribing rules for certain fog signals to be observed by steamers, sailing vessels and other crafts:

CIRCULAR.
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, July 18th, 1871.

To Collectors of Customs and others:—The following rules prescribing certain Fog Signals to be sounded by sailing vessels, steamers and other craft during stormy or thick weather, adopted by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels, having been adopted by this Department, are hereby promulgated for the information of all concerned.

Every steamer when under way, shall use a steam whistle. Sailing vessels and all other crafts propelled by sail, shall use a fog horn.

Whenever there is a fog, whether by day or night, the fog signals described below shall be sounded.

A sailing vessel, and every craft propelled by sail, upon the ocean, lakes and rivers, shall, when on their starboard tack, sound one blast of their fog horn; when with the wind free or running large, they shall sound three blasts of their fog horn; when lying to or at anchor, they shall sound a general alarm. In each instance, the above signals shall be sounded at intervals of no more than two minutes.

Sailing vessels when not under way, and anchored or moored in the channel or fairway of commerce, shall sound the general alarm signal at intervals of not more than two minutes, and all steamers navigating in a fog or thick weather, shall, by the rules governing pilots, sound their steam whistles at intervals of not more than one minute.

Sailing vessels shall at all times, on the approach of any steamer during the night-time, show a lighted torch upon that one or quarter to which the steamer shall be approaching. And upon any craft navigating rivers without being in view of a steamer, such as rafts, flatboats, wood-boats, and other like crafts, they shall sound a fog horn at intervals of not more than two minutes.

It shall at all times be the duty of steamers to give to the sailing vessels or other craft propelled by sails every advantage, and keep out of their way.

GEO. S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Merchandise Report.

RAGS—We note sales of 12,000 at 13½c.

BACON, HAMS AND SHOULDERS—The Commercial Herald of San Francisco, says: Oregon meats are scarce and in demand. Unpacked stock more plentiful, yet too slovenly cut and packed to be saleable upon arrival, and has to go to the packers to be dressed up, at an average cost of 4 cents lb. Market here for bacon is firm at the advance, 14c, with light stores and receipts not equal to the demand. In hams market stiffening, with no advance to note. In shoulders market same as last quotations.

BUTTER—Receipts fair, but owing to the warm weather, some receipts are in bad condition. We quote range of market, owing to condition and quality, 15@19c P lb.

COFFEE—We note a continued firmness in the market with strong tendency to advance. We quote market range from 16½@17½c.

OILS—Market demoralized, consequently prices conflicting.
